Exploring AI in Credit Unions

Artificial intelligence is everywhere, but what really matters to credit unions?

Join us as Prashanta Pradhan cuts through the noise to deliver a clear, practical overview of where credit unions should invest in AI.

Before joining the CU industry, Prashanta built his career in AI-driven natural language and speech recognition in the private sector, being awarded 4 patents in the field. Today, as the EVP/CIO of a leading corporate credit union, he brings a rare combination of advanced AI experience and industry leadership offering:

- Enterprise AI innovation experience
- Deep credit union operational leadership
- Strategic insight on practical, scalable implementation
