LSCU Seats New Board of Directors Leadership

ORLANDO, FL – The League of Southeastern Credit Unions (LSCU) is proud to announce the seating of its Board of Directors for 2024-25 and the election of the Board’s leadership. The Board’s officers were elected following the LSCU Annual Business Meeting held in Orlando on Thursday, June 13, 2024.

The LSCU Board of Directors is made up of 18 credit union President/CEOs. Alabama, Florida, and Georgia each elect six representatives to the Board and Directors serve three-year terms. Each board member represents a specific state and credit union size of membership.

The leadership of the new Board of Directors is:

- Chair Richard J. “Rick” Skaggs, President/CEO, USF Federal Credit Union
- Chair-Elect Ola Anise, President/CEO, Azalea City Credit Union
- Vice Chair Roy Bibb, President/CEO, MidSouth Community Federal Credit Union
- Treasurer Bobby Michael, President/CEO, All In Credit Union
- Secretary Steve Moseley, President/CEO, MIDFLORIDA Credit Union

“I am honored at the opportunity to lead the LSCU Board at this incredible moment in the League’s storied history,” said Skaggs. “As LSCU continues to explore new ways to better serve our members in innovative and impactful ways, I am confident that the greatest days yet are on the horizon for credit unions throughout Alabama, Florida, and Georgia, and I appreciate the confidence of our members in choosing me to help steer us into this amazing next chapter.”

“These credit union leaders have proven their dedication to the credit union movement, both in their own operations and in those of their peers across our footprint,” said Samantha Beeler, President of LSCU. “We are excited to continue to work with them in this greater capacity, charting a course together to serve credit unions throughout the region in impactful and innovative ways and helping to pave the way for greater credit union success in the months and years ahead.”
